Who have the deeper sense of smell, dogs or humans? Most of us would say (21) the dog's nose is much more sensitive than man's. After all, dogs are used to (22). The (23) is that your nose is probably as sensitive as any dog's (24), you were trained to use your nose (25). And since your brain is much better than the dog's you would be much (26) to fool than a dog would be. If you wanted (27) someone's smell, you would have to crawl about (28) on your hands and knees with your nose to the ground (29). In its own way, however, your nose is as sensitive to (30) smells as your ear is to the softest of sounds. Most wine companies employ professional tasters (31) the quality of their products. These tasters take very small amounts of the (32) and run it around in their mouths while (33) chewing movements. This "mouthing" of the liquid forces the wine up the back entrance to the nasal passage (34) smells can best be caught. If the wine they may hold (35).

I hope this email finds you well. I wanted to share with you one of my favorite photos that holds a special place in my heart.

The photo was taken during my trip to Paris last summer. It was captured at the iconic Eiffel Tower, just as the sun was setting behind it, creating a breathtaking backdrop. In the photo, I am standing alongside my best friend, both of us beaming with joy and excitement.

What makes this photo so special to me is the combination of the stunning architecture and the precious memories it holds. The Eiffel Tower represents the beauty and romance of Paris, and being able to experience it with my closest friend made it even more memorable. Every time I look at this photo, it transports me back to that magical moment, reminding me of the incredible adventures we shared together.

I just wanted to share this photo and the story behind it with you. I hope it brings a smile to your face, just as it does to mine. Let's plan our own adventure soon and create more unforgettable memories together!
